

VOLUME III

University of California, Riverside

Undergraduate Research Journal

Call for Papers

Submission period:
February 23, 2009 through March 24, 2009

Undergraduate students who are involved, either individually or as a group, in a research, scholarly or creative project under the guidance of a UCR Faculty Mentor, are invited to submit their work for student and faculty review for inclusion in Volume III of the UC Riverside, Undergraduate Research Journal.

Accepted articles will be published in a web version of the Journal and, from those, six to eight will be chosen as most outstanding for the inclusion in the print version of the Journal.
